Sure of Salvation (1 John 5:1-5, 11-13, 18-21)

The Point: We can be sure God saves us when we trust in Christ.

The Bible Meets Life: We value guarantees, but how do we know if a religion actually delivers on what it promises? Many religions claim to offer people a way to God, but how do you know you will actually reach God or attain eternal life?

► Islam teaches that paradise awaits those who are obedient to the practices of Islam, but it offers no guarantee that a Muslim has obeyed enough to “make it.”

► Hinduism says reincarnation might eventually get you to enlightenment. However, if a Hindu thinks he will be continually reincarnated, how can he possibly know he’s ever reached enlightenment?

► Even cults that include a belief in Jesus add an element of works to what is required to go to heaven. What they cannot offer is any assurance that you’ve done enough to reach heaven.

The Christian life points us to Christ as the only path to salvation and a relationship with God. We can add nothing to it! When we simply trust what Christ has done, we can be assured of a relationship with God.

Live It Out: Evaluate your life. Does your life reflect the triad of assurance: faith, love, obedience? If you say yes, but not as well as it should, what changes need to be made in your life to better reflect these salvation qualities? Align your life. Have you started taking steps in your life to be a faithful witness? Practice sharing your testimony. Download the Life on Mission app (namb.net) on your phone, learn the presentation, and be prepared to share. Make a difference in someone’s life. Make an intentional effort to lead someone to faith in Christ this week. Set up a coffee or lunch meeting. Make it a priority to share the gospel. Remember, it’s not your job to save them, but God does want you to share. Trust Him for the results.

Pray for Schools

This week, let us pray for the PARENTS:

Pray for their anxiety as they entrust their children to the care of others.

Pray they set good, godly examples for their children. Pray for them as they support their children’s emotional well-being, physical needs and learning.
